Board of Directors Update

Our Senior Center is well and happy! So many new activities and events are popping up as members come forward with new ideas and the enthusiasm to get things started.

Our craft activities have been a big hit and very well attended. Plan to join one or both of the March classes. These are members lead classes. If you have a craft to share, let Susan Edwards or Aline Goodchild know so it can be put on the schedule. All supplies are paid for by the Senior Organization so there is no cost for leaders or members joining the classes. This effort is just one example of members driven fun at the center.

As we go forward, additional help from folks with skills and enthusiasm is needed to help with running the center. We have a great group of folks running the front desk but additional subs would be helpful. Anyone interested in helping with the newsletter would be most welcomed. Helping to sort and rotate the library is a task that could use some extra hands. A team to sort through and organize the cabinets in the back room is badly needed! An individual to keep our activity kiosk at the front door updated would take one task off the shoulders of your board members. There is room for anyone wanting to be an active part of the center to come forward and find their special talents being put to use.

So as the winter months try to slow us down with snow, wind and below zero temperatures, take stock of your talents and interests and see if you can find your special place to belong in our club.

Our local Irish Dancers will be entertaining us again this year on Friday, March 15 during the lunch hour. Mark your calendar and make you lunch reservation! You do not want to miss these awesome young performers!

February was packed with fun and exciting events! Much thanks to all who helped including Aline Goodchild and Susan Edwards who lead our craft days, VFW Post 6051 who provided our yummy spaghetti catered meal and the PPCC Jazz Ensemble teachers and students who entertained us with lively music at our catered meal.

March art classes at the Senior Center

March of the Spring Flowers

March 6: Snowmelted Spring Flowers

Choosing from an assortment of Colorado's spring flower examples, participants will learn some tips for creating a harmonious watercolor painting of a single flower.

March 20: Magnetic Acrylic Flower

Learn to use a palette knife with acrylic to create texture & color movement on a six-petal dynamic flower magnet.

Debra Greenwood, a retired Art teacher, is anxious to share her love of art in these fun classes. She will be offering Wednesday afternoon art classes twice each month. Plan to join her and let your creative juices flow!

Would you like to learn to crochet these fun hats?

We have started an outreach group to make hats for newborns, homeless folks, vets and cancer survivors. We will provide all the materials and Lila Tilger will provide the expertise.

Finished hats will be delivered to area outreach programs

Come join this fun group – we are part of the Tuesday morning knit and crochet folks.

Willowstone Antique Marketplace

Our March 14th outing will be to browse the stalls at Willowstone, Colorado's largest indoor marketplace. Featuring new, vintage and up-cycled goods in a 75,000 square foot showroom, there is sure to be something for everyone!

Plan to leave the Senior Center at 11:30, right after bingo. We will have lunch at the Willowstone café before our afternoon of browsing. We will be back at the Senior Center by 3:00pm.

March craft classes at the Senior Center

Our craft group will be continuing with their card creations this month. On March 5, Aline Goodchild will show us how to stencil and emboss our cards and on March 13, Gwen Hensinger will be sharing her string art card techniques.

On March 27, our crafters will have the opportunity learn how to paint on a T-shirt as they produce a personalized item of wearable art!

Come for lunch and plan to stay for crafts!

It is past time to renew your membership!

Annual dues are $30. The front desk folks are ready to help! 2018 full year members who have not renewed by March 15 will no longer be included in the Catered meal call list!

UCHealth Pikes Peak Regional Hospital nursing staff will be providing monthly Blood Pressure checks at the Senior Center from 10:30am to 11:30am on the third Tuesday of each month starting on March 19.

Quilt Winner

Lauren Wark was the quilt winner. Aline Goodchild was one of the Quilters Above the Clouds who made the quilt and was able to present the quilt to the winner. Aline took the time to explain the best way to keep the quilt in good condition so it can be handed down as an heirloom. Lauren was delighted with both the quilt and the info. Thanks Aline.

Member Spotlight By Eva Mattedi

Anna May Hoffman

After living in Calhan for 25 years, Anna May moved to Woodland Park to be closer to her children. Her favorite color is blue because it brings out her blue eyes.

She used to enjoy the farm animals like cows, sheep and goats when she was growing up. She especially loved to milk the cows. Now she likes animals that belong to other people and does not have any pets of her own!

Anna May likes doing physical work and remembers fondly her work in the meat shop. Her favorite treat is anything chocolate!

Her hobby is running her 4 knitting machines. She makes hats and scarves for the homeless and preemie babies. She also enjoys making jewelry and diverse crafts.

Anna May has been a member of the Senior Center for about 3 years. She enjoys socializing with other members, going on the trips, bowling, bingo and quilting.

Each month we feature a different member so that we can get to know each other better. See how much you have in common and say "Hi!" next time you see them!
