Board of Directors Update

Happy Father's Day to all our gents with kids, grandkids and great grandkids. May your month be spent enjoying time with your families building new memories and recalling fun times from the past!

Our snowbirds are arriving back in town along with our Board President, Jerry Burnham and wife, Pat. Welcome back! You have all been missed.

June is a busy time at the center. Our High Tea committee is busy with preparations for the June 15th event. Tea cups, china plates and tea pots are being retrieved from storage. They have enlisted the help of the craft group to make decorations. Folks are signing up to make assorted finger foods. It promises to be a great event! Seats are limited! Make sure to get your reservation in early!

The membership annual meeting, highlighted by the election of new board members, will be at the June 25th Catered Meal this month. We have four board seats with expiring terms. Some new folks have expressed an interest in joining the board. Plan to come to the meeting and learn about those willing to put their time and talents into providing an active Senior Center for us.

Enjoy getting outside as warmer weather finally has arrived!

A huge heart-felt Thank-You goes out to VFW Post 11411! They pulled together double duty in May providing workers for both the Memorial Day weekend Pancake Breakfast and our May Catered Meal. Thanks to all of you for your dedication to the Senior Center and for your service to our country! Our May Catered Meal program was provided by the Colorado Palliative & Hospice Care folks. Jennifer, Donita and Shelley answered many questions and brought clarity to the many services available. Thanks for the time and your obvious dedication to those you are able to serve!

June 17 - Pueblo Riverwalk and Boat Ride trip

The interest in this trip has been more than our usual transportation can accommodate so we have secured a larger vehicle to take our group to Pueblo for this trip. We can now take up to 37 folks.

All expenses except lunch are being paid by the Club!

To secure your reservation: Stop by or call the Senior Center (719-687-3877) !

Huge Fabric & Sewing Supplies Donation

Linda Weaver can no longer sew and has donated many boxes of fabric and supplies to the Senior Center. The craft and quilt groups welcome this donation and will make good use of Linda's generous donation. Thanks Linda!

MIA Members Update

We have missed Allie Kinnaird, Tim Tholen and Doris Gowen at the center – here is the update!

Tim is now back in town at Forestridge Rehab - he would love visitors!

Doris is recuperating in Pueblo - her family is keeping us updated on her progress - stop by the center to sign a card to be sent to her.

Allie Kinnaird has been housebound for several weeks and misses coming into the center tremendously. She will undergo some medical procedures early in June and will hopefully be back at the center before the end of the month!
