Director's Corner

Hello members. The saying "when life gives you lemons, make lemonade" has never been truer than the last couple of months for me. I have had quite a few challenges and I must keep moving forward. I have become aware that I need to have a full-time position with benefits to meet my current and future needs including a place to stay. Unfortunately, I have found that Woodland Park is not a good prospect for either one of these. I have resigned as Director of the Woodland Park Senior

Organization, effective after a new person is found and has been trained. I will be coming to Woodland Park for special events with the Senior Club, the Picnic in the Park this weekend for one, and to take care of other "in person" needs as they arise. I will keep working remotely from Westminster dealing with the day to day operations when not in town. I have come to know so many of you and will miss you dearly. A good friend recently told me "Life Happens" and I must make my way through it. Please let Jerry know of anyone that may want to work for the Organization. I hope to see you all sometime soon. Thanks for your friendship, Dee

Thank you to our wonderful Picnic in the Park Sponsors:

Colorado Natural Gas - Summit Utilities, Inc. and the Historic Ute Inn for providing the Meats and Buns!!! We had 27 people attend and a grand time was had by all.

Each month we will feature a different member so that we can get to know each other better. See how much you have in common and say “Hi!” next time you see them!

Ruth Williams & Gene (Red)

Ruth and Red lived in Basalt in the beautiful Western slope. They had always looking for a log home and found it in Woodland Park. Ruth loves bright colors like pink and lavender that go well with her hair. Although they do not currently have any pets, they both like dogs, especially boxers which look mean but are very loving.

Ruth has always enjoyed working with people and likes volunteering. She worked as a secretary at a Doctor’s office and at a hospital.

Red recalls most of his life being in the furniture business. He learned his trade in California with great joy and was eager to assist people personally with design.

Ruth loves flowers and chocolate. Red loves M&Ms, chocolate and pancakes.

Ruth makes time for reading, especially mysteries and romances.

Red enjoys camping, travel, traditional music (especially Doris Day).

Red and Ruth love the time they spend at the Senior Center socializing with friendly people. Red loves to hear the “lies of the Oldtimers”. Red and Ruth have been married for 66 years, raising three sons although only one of them is still alive.
